

JUKE JOINT SMOKERS

Hill-country Blues from Berlin

Juke Joint Smokers is a musical duo from Berlin that delivers raw and down to the bone honest traditional blues that catapults the listener right to the swamps of the deep Mississippi.

Influenced by the blues style of Sonny Terry, Johnny Woods and Billy Bizer, Adam Sikora masterfully captures the room with his extraordinary harmonica playing backed up by multi-instrumentalist Luis "Gigi" de Cicco from Benevento, who, like Adam, found his own blues groove by delving deep into the styles of Mississippi Fred McDowell, RL Burnside and other Hill Country masters. Together they play a raw and rusty hill-country blues which draws inspiration from the streets of Berlin.
